

ARELY PATRICIA ALVARADO ZÚNIGA has a MSC in educational research, UPNFM in Honduras (thesis on Human Rights education) and a Master in psychology, UNAH in Honduras (thesis on Mental Health). She has worked in the disability and human rights field, with focus on Autistic Spectrum Disorders and Violence-Torture, with victims/survivors and their families. She has also been responsible of working in the Regional Platform for prevention of violence in Central America (CPTRT). Member of McGill Echenberg Conference Young Leaders, EQUITAS Human Rights (Canada) and PSICOACCIÓN-Honduras.

apaz@nuncamas.net