

DEA KOPP JENSEN, 14 years' experience working with human rights, especially in the Latin American region and mainly from the International Rehabilitation Council for Torture Victims (IRCT). As coordinator for the Latin American region, Dea worked on maintaining dialogue and coordination with membership and liaising with relevant partners and institutions. She also supported member centers with respect to capacity building and identification of potential funding opportunities; development of projects, as required by the membership needs. Dea also contributed to the Latin American component to the overall strategic approach of the organization's movement. Dea holds a MA Degree in Translation and Interpretation. Besides the tasks related to NUNCA MAS, she currently works at Copenhagen Business School and as a freelance translator.

dkj@nuncamas.net